Objective

- Simplify Gifting Process

- Enable users to find and select the perfect gift quickly without extensive research.

- Enhance Personalization

- Offer tailored gift recommendations based on recipient preferences, interests, and occasions.

- Streamline Group Gifting

- Facilitate many-to-one gifting flows for events like weddings or office farewells.

- Encourage Social Connectivity

- Provide a platform for users to connect with friends, family, and co-workers to coordinate gifting.

- Increase User Engagement

- Keep users engaged with features like wishlists, event reminders, and interactive dashboards.

Approach

1. Strategy

- Align user needs (convenience, personalization) with business goals (engagement, revenue growth).
- Focus on simplifying gifting with smart recommendations and social connectivity.

2. Scope

- Key features: wishlists, event reminders, gift suggestions, group gifting, and feedback collection.

3. Structure

- Logical navigation: dashboard → recipient profiles → gift details → checkout → delivery tracking.

4. Skeleton

- Wireframes: intuitive layouts for onboarding, gift selection, and payment flow.

5. Surface

- Aesthetic design: clean, minimalistic UI with engaging visuals and consistent typography.

USER CENTRIC DESIGN CANVAS (Strategy)

3. Problems

Users forget important events or miss gifting opportunities.

Lack of time for in-depth research on recipient preferences.

Difficulty coordinating group gifts (payment collection, decision-making).

Uncertainty about where to find meaningful or unique gifts

9. Unique Value Proposition

"Make gifting joyful, personalized, and effortless with an app that knows your loved ones as well as you do."

4. Motives

Strengthen relationships with friends, family, and coworkers.

Show thoughtfulness and effort through personalized gifting.

Avoid stress by having reminders and curated suggestions.

Make collaborative gifting efficient and seamless.

5. Fears

Missing deadlines for gift-giving or sending an inappropriate gift.

Gifting experiences feeling impersonal or generic.

Challenges in group coordination leading to delays or disputes.

Privacy concerns with shared data on preferences and events.

1. Business

Build a platform that simplifies the gifting process, fosters meaningful social connections, and drives revenue through affiliate partnerships with retailers and premium services like personalized gifting options.

Customer Interview and Key Insight (Strategy)

Question 1: How do you currently approach gift-giving for your loved ones or colleagues?

Interviewee 1: "I usually ask them directly or stalk their social media profiles to figure out what they might like."

Interviewee 2: "I pick something generic, like chocolates or gift cards. It's convenient, but I wish it felt more thoughtful."

Interviewee 3: "I try to remember past conversations for hints, but I often struggle because of my busy schedule."

Interviewee 4: "For group gifts, we use a WhatsApp group to discuss ideas and share costs, but it's chaotic."

Interviewee 5: "I don't gift much because I forget dates. When I do, it's often a last-minute scramble."

Question 2: What are your biggest challenges when choosing gifts?

Interviewee 1: "Not knowing their exact preferences or sizes for items like clothes."

Interviewee 2: "Coordinating with friends for group gifts is a nightmare."

Interviewee 3: "The time it takes to research options that feel meaningful."

Interviewee 4: "Finding gifts that stand out, especially for important occasions like weddings."

Interviewee 5: "I'm unsure if the recipient will like what I chose, which makes me hesitate."

Key Insight:

The interviews reveal that an ideal gifting platform must prioritize personalization, event management, and collaboration while addressing user pain points like time constraints, forgotten dates, and coordination challenges. By offering AI-driven suggestions, seamless social features, and collaborative tools, the platform can create a stress-free and joyful gifting experience.

Question 3: What would make gifting easier and more enjoyable for you?

Interviewee 1: "A wishlist where they could add things they want."

Interviewee 2: "Suggestions based on their likes, budget, and the occasion."

Interviewee 3: "A reminder system that doesn't let me forget key dates."

Interviewee 4: "A way to split costs and choose gifts collaboratively for group events."

Interviewee 5: "Having access to curated lists of unique gifts."

Question 4: How do you currently keep track of events like birthdays or anniversaries?

Interviewee 1: "Mostly rely on Facebook or my phone's calendar."

Interviewee 2: "I don't really track them; someone usually reminds me."

Interviewee 3: "I set reminders on my phone, but I forget to update them."

Interviewee 4: "We use a shared Google calendar in my friend group."

Interviewee 5: "Honestly, I don't. I've missed important events because of it."

Question 5: What's your ideal gifting experience?

Interviewee 1: "Something quick but thoughtful, where I can pick from curated options."

Interviewee 2: "Seeing the recipient genuinely happy and surprised by the gift."

Interviewee 3: "Feeling confident that what I chose was perfect for them."

Interviewee 4: "An app where I can coordinate group gifts without chaos."

Interviewee 5: "Being able to send a gift at the last minute but still make it feel special."
